An ABC for Children's Booksellers

A is for Authors, Alchemical spinners of tales

B is for Booksellers, Books and Beauty

C is for Children, Curiosity and Calm

D is for Dinosaurs and Digital - the twain DOES meet.

E is for Energy, and Education (hidden like vegetables in the delicious word cakes)

F is for Fun, Fairness, Fairies – and Fear

G is for Grandparents, nurturing young readers

H is for Harry P., still flying high

I is for Identity, Inspiration, Illumination and Insight

J is for Joy, overwhelming and strange

K is for Kindness, little acts of.

L is for Light, shining into dark corners

M is for Money: buy a book; feed an author, a bookseller, a publisher and your mind

N is for Night time and the bed-time story

O is for Opening, a page, a book, a mind

P is for Parenting, Pictures and Publishers

Q is for Qwerty: write your own stories

 $\mathbb{R}$  is for Reading all the days of your life

S is for Serendipity and Synergy, found in Superabundance in bookshop

T is for Truth, Timelessness and Te Reo

U is for the Unknown, always exciting to explore

V is for Voracious, Vulnerable and Victorious, all Reader subspecies

W is for Words: Wonderful, Wry, and Worrisome

X is for Extremely Good Books

Y is a good question, books have some great answers!

Z is for Zabaglione and Zealotry, both crucial in bookselling

© Bronwyn Wylie Gibb University Book Shop Otago Ltd