

Held in Trust : Curiosity in Things

24-25 January 2019

Joint Conference University of Otago Centre for Colonial Research & Otago Museum
Barclay Theatre, Otago Museum

Thursday 24

10:00:00	10:15:00	Welcome and Registration
10:15:00	10:30:00	Opening Remarks Dr Ian Griffin, Director Otago Museum
10:30:00	11:30:00	Keynote Professor Tony Ballantyne
11:30:00	11:55:00	Morning tea
11:55:00	12:20:00	Rebecca Rice “My dear Hooker”: the botanical landscape in colonial New Zealand’
12:20:00	12:45:00	Linda Tyler ‘Control of the colonial herbarium: John Buchanan’s New Zealand plant collecting’
12:45:00	14:00:00	LUNCH on your own
14:00:00	14:25:00	Paige Gleeson ‘Australia’s empire of artefacts: Oceanic collections photography and Australian Imperialism, 1870-1915’
14:25:00	14:50:00	Justine Olsen ‘Promoting a brand? New Zealand and colonial cabinet makers’
14:50:00	15:15:00	Afternoon tea
15:15:00	16:15:00	Keynote Professor Simon Ville ‘The exchange, finance and logistics of natural history: a global trade like no other?’
16:15:00	17:30:00	Tour of Otago Museum’s exhibition ‘Est.1868’
18:00:00		Drinks & meal @ Staff Club

Friday 25

10:00:00	10:25:00	David Gaimster ‘Fitting the colonial museum dashboard? Curatorial agency, civic action and identity building at the Auckland Museum (1852-1917)’
10:25:00	10:50:00	Rosi Crane ‘What were they thinking? Tracing the traces of scientific thought through the Otago Museum collections’
10:50:00	11:15:00	Morning tea
11:15:00	11:40:00	Grace Lai ‘Inequality of knowledge: reinvestigating the influences of Auckland Studio Pottery through the lens of Korean ceramics’
11:40:00	12:05:00	Steve Taylor ‘The symbol of the burning bush as an object in global exchange and local adaptation’
12:05:00	13:30:00	LUNCH on your own
13:30:00	14:55:00	Kane Fleury ‘Books and drawers full of moths’
14:55:00	15:20:00	Rachel Wesley ‘Kōhatu Mauri: an exercise in practice across cultures’

15:20:00	15:45:00	Afternoon tea
15:45:00	16:45:00	Keynote Associate Professor Conal McCarthy 'From curio to taonga: 150 years of museum histories, theories and politics'
16:45:00	17:00:00	Farewell