

“Education, Migration and Translation”
Research Symposium
Sunday 26 November 2017

Hosted by the Centre for Global Migrations, University of Otago, New Zealand

Location: Higher Education Development Centre (Seminar Room)
65/75 Union Place West, Dunedin

Programme

8.15-8.45	Registration (Higher Education Development Centre)
8.45-9.00	Mihi whakatau and welcome - Mark Brunton Introductions
9.00-10.00	Keynote Address - Professor Michael Singh (Centre for Educational Research, Western Sydney University)
10.00-10.30	Morning tea
10.30-12.30	SESSION 1: (Chair: Henry Johnson)
	Tangiwai Rewi Education, Migration and Translation
	Elijah Aoina Towards an ethnography of Pacific Islanders in Australian higher education
	Sione Ata Siulua Understanding Names and Identity: New Perspectives on Names, Identity, Oppression, and Hegemony
	Pia Kahn An Indigenist hermeneutic of the Philippine Revolution
	Sawsan Al-Shamaa & Tamendi Pranish Cultural dimensions of plagiarism
	DISCUSSION
12.30-1.30	LUNCH
1.30-3.30	SESSION 2: (Chair: Vivienne Anderson)
	Daniel Hernandez Aboriginal Kava Stories as Counter Hegemonic Epistemologies: Urban Diasporic Lessons in Critical Oral Pedagogy at the Intersections of Language and Culture
	Antonio Viselli Translating Biculturalism: Teaching Francophone Culture in Aotearoa
	Sherrie Lee International students' brokering practices: Using their own cultural resources in an English-speaking world
	Hayley King Test Impacts of the NAATI Test: migration outcomes & social cohesion
	Wei Mao Preliminary findings from a study of intercultural Mandarin Chinese education in a New Zealand Adult Beginner Classroom
	DISCUSSION

3.30-4.00	Afternoon tea
4.00-6.00	SESSION 3: (Chair: Angela McCarthy)
	Shelly Rao Improving educational outcomes by promoting cultural and linguistic diversity
	Kieran Ford Teaching Britishness in the Face of Terror: Countering Violent Extremism in the Classroom with 'Fundamental British Values'
	Sarah Carr (presented by Raymond Xia) Clarifying Expectations: Chinese and New Zealand DBA Students' Understanding of the Role of Thesis Supervisors
	Salmah Kassim Malaysian Women's Career Development Following International Study: A Narrative Study
	Alumita L. Durutalo Migration and Language Teaching: Fijian & Pasifika Languages at Otago
	DISCUSSION
	Close